

Company and Professional Awards

Fellow, Society for Technical Communication

Awarded to Associate Fellows of the society who have made exemplary contributions to the field of technical and corporate communication. The plaque reads "Rich Maggiani is recognized and honored as a Fellow; for your service as a business, STC, and Vermont chapter leader, and for your exemplary contributions to the technical communication profession through support of civic activities at all levels... and because you rock!" Less than one-half of one-percent of members gain the stature of STC Fellow.

Award of Distinction, Solari Position Papers; The Communicator Awards

Cited for their clean, simple design; their clear writing styles; relevant content, and their contribution to the field of corporate communication.

Associate Fellow; Society for Technical Communication (STC)

"For his (Rich Maggiani's) dedication and leadership in the Society, his chapter, his community, and his state."

Distinguished Special Interest Group (SIG) Service; Society for Technical Communication (STC)

"For outstanding service as Membership manager of the Consulting and Independent Contracting SIG, and for promotion of and participation of CIC SIG events at STC Annual Conferences."

Annual Honor Roll; Child Care Fund of Vermont

Awarded for child-friendly business practices for employees' families.

Employer of the Year; Vermont Federation of Business and Professional Women's Association

Awarded for being the exemplary employer for women. This award was officially recognized by Deborah Markowitz, Vermont Secretary of State; State Representative Michael Obuchowski, Speaker of the Vermont House of Representatives; U.S. Representative Bernie Sanders (Vermont); and U.S. Senator Jim Jeffords (Vermont). We achieved this award over five other statewide companies because we offered the best environment and benefits for a company of our size.

Employer of the Year; Burlington (Vermont) Chapter of the Business and Professional Women's Association

Awarded for being the exemplary employer for women in Chittenden County, Vermont.

Outstanding Service Award; Society for Technical Communication (STC)

"In recognition of your dedication and service to STC as a member of the technical Program Team; STC's 51st Annual Conference, Baltimore Maryland."

America Goes Back to School; U.S. Department of Education

Awarded for allowing employees who are parents of elementary school children to attend the first day of school each year (with pay) and for education-friendly business practices (such as allowing time off to volunteer in a child's classroom).
